

THE CONSTITUTION.

PUBLISHED DAILY, SUNDAY, WEEKLY.

The Daily, per year, . . . $6.00
 The Sunday (20 to 36 pages), . . . 2.00
 The Daily and Sunday, per year, . . . 8.00
 The Weekly, per year, . . . 1.00
 All editions sent postpaid to all addresses.
 At these reduced rates all subscriptions must be paid in advance.

Where to Find The Constitution.
 Contributors must keep copies of articles. We do not undertake to return rejected MSS., and will do so under no circumstances unless accompanied by return postage.
 Nicholas & Holliday, Eastern Advertising Agents, Address Constitution Building, Atlanta, Ga.

The Constitution can be found on sale at WASHINGTON—Metropolitan Hotel.
 JACKSONVILLE—W. E. Armstrong.
 CINCINNATI—J. R. Hawley, 122 Fifth avenue.
 NEW YORK—McClure's, 124 Fifth avenue.
 FIFTH AVENUE HOTEL NEWS STAND.
 CHICAGO—P. O. News Company, 91 Adams street.
 GREAT NORTHERN HOTEL, 102 West Madison street.
 HOTEL HAMILTON, Palmer house.
 HOTEL INGRAM, McDonald & Co., 55 Washington street.

12 CENTS PER WEEK
 For The Daily Constitution, or 50 cents per calendar month. Sixteen cents per week for The Daily and Sunday Constitution, or 67 cents per calendar month, delivered to any address by carrier in the city of Atlanta. Sent by your name at once.

ATLANTA, GA., SEPTEMBER 20, 1893.

Atlanta to the Rescue!
 Next Friday evening one of the largest audiences ever assembled in Atlanta will pack DeGives Grand opera house. This goes without saying, for the occasion is one which will appeal to every Atlanta citizen—a benefit for the plague-stricken people in the city of Brunswick.

The Atlanta newspapers have entered heartily into the work, and a programme has been arranged which for variety and general excellence will prove a most attractive inducement for a crowded house. The newspaper men are in it heart and soul, and an evening of the rarest enjoyment is assured.

Other cities in the state will respond liberally to Brunswick's appeal for aid, and Atlanta will do her part with that readiness of generosity and sympathy which are among her chief characteristics. Pesticence has made a black wall around Brunswick; the city is suffering, and famine threatens it. This is enough to awake the sympathies of the world in its behalf.

Let Atlanta lead her sister cities in this noble duty and give the most substantial testimonial of her interest and love.

Atlanta to the rescue!

Speaker Crisp and the Election Laws.
 A casual correspondent of The New York Herald, who subscribes himself "A Gentleman of Verona," writes a very queer letter on the repeal of the federal election laws. The effort that the democrats are now making to bring their party together for the purpose of getting the repeal bill through the house has inflamed this correspondent to such an extent as to make it clear that he is not a newspaper man, but some insider who is personally interested in establishing the single gold standard and in forcing an issue of bonds. Under the circumstances it would be, perhaps, both truthful and parliamentary to characterize the letter in The Herald as an echo from the lobby.

Speaker Crisp is politely denounced by the casual correspondent of The Herald for his activity in urging progress for the bill to repeal the federal election laws. If it is wrong to repeal these laws, then Speaker Crisp is amenable to criticism, for he has certainly betrayed the activity of a real democratic leader in having the repeal bill reported to the house. But it should be borne in mind that the federal election laws, under the partisan manipulation of unscrupulous republicans, are as malignant and as infamous as the Davenport force bill, which, such as a figure in 1890 and in the campaign of 1892. Under their operations wherever the republican leaders found it profitable, federal supervisors and federal deputy marshals can be summoned to take charge of affairs. These laws are real force laws, whereas the force bill was more in the nature of a campaign bugaboo, which, according to competent opinion, would have been practically inoperative. It is no cause for wonder, then, that a democratic speaker profoundly interested in the success of his party and in the welfare of the people should hasten to urge the repeal of these partisan laws.

The Herald correspondent describes Mr. Crisp as "a sectionalist." If this description is not in a measure true it certainly ought to be. Speaker Crisp is a sectionalist to the extent that he favors legislation in the interest of the people of his section. Sectionalism is the key to the whole situation in Washington. The congressmen from the east appear to be proud of the fact that they are sectionalists. They lose no opportunity to advertise it. They proceed upon the theory that politics is business, and that all business is based on selfish interests. They do not hesitate to carry out this theory in practice, and the result is that the east has for thirty years and more controlled the financial and economic legislation of the country.

The congressmen from the east do not permit party lines and party affiliations to stand in the way of the interests of their section. It is to the profit of the banks and moneyed men of the east that silver should be wiped out of our system as a money standard and that gold should be the sole standard of value. Therefore we see the democrats acting with the republicans and the republicans acting with the democrats to secure this result. Could sectionalism go any further than this?

We rejoice to know, therefore, that Speaker Crisp is a sectionalist in the sense that he is inflamed with an earnest desire to promote the business and economic interests of his section as against the selfish desires of a small, but powerful, class of eastern bankers and money lenders, and that he is anxious to have removed from the statute books the par-than election laws placed there by the republicans for the purpose of restricting the freedom of the ballot. The south needs the service of all such sectionalists, and we could wish that every southern representative in both houses would be ardent sectionalists to the end that the interests of their people might be protected against the greed and rapacity of the eastern banks and money lenders. The correspondent describes Speaker Crisp as a bigoted man, full of bitter prejudices, but the description is so inaccurate that it is hardly worth discussing. The speaker's bigotry consists in having opinions of his own, in believing that the democratic platform ought to be carried out, and his prejudices go to the extent of refusing to join the eastern contingent in fastening upon the country a financial system that will enrich the banks and the money lenders at the expense of the prosperity of the rest of the people. We could wish that all bigotry and prejudice were of this color and consistency.

Simply an Outrage.
 The action of the board of health and marine hospital surgeons at Brunswick in refusing to allow the newspaper correspondents to give the names of the yellow fever patients is simply a high-handed outrage.

Thousands of refugees from Brunswick, in Atlanta and elsewhere, are half crazed when they read the telegraphic announcement of new fever cases every morning. They have husbands, brothers, sons and other loved ones in Brunswick and they feel the most intense anxiety to know their fate. But the authorities deliberately leave them in suspense and every time they hear of a new case they fear that one of their kinsmen is the victim.

The Constitution's correspondent, Mr. Deming, is threatened with arrest if he telegraphs the names of the sick or their residences. Yesterday he wired us as follows:

Brunswick, Ga., September 19.—Editor Constitution: I have the names of all the sick, but am in honor bound not to publish them. I am threatened with severe punishment if I publish names. An ordinance has been raked up giving the mayor power to imprison me if I divulge names. Surgeon Murray demands that I do not publish names. Under ordinary circumstances I would risk imprisonment, but do not want to go to jail with yellow fever about.

It is impossible to think of any sound reason for this strange and unheard of policy. If the names of the fever patients were given, their families and friends outside of Brunswick would know of the situation. As it is they are filled with apprehension, and their fears are shared by all the refugees. We can imagine nothing that is more likely to cause a nervous panic than such frightful suspense. The threat to imprison our correspondent for telegraphing the facts of the situation is an unjustifiable menace to his rights as a citizen, and it more over interferes with the freedom of the press. The worst thing about it, however, is the mental torture which it inflicts upon the Brunswick refugees who are waiting and watching for the latest tidings of the epidemic.

We put the authorities of Brunswick upon notice that their policy will not stand. It is senseless and inhuman, and public opinion will cause it to be abandoned. The outside world is entitled to the news, and if there is any crime involved in the matter it is in suppressing the facts, and not in publishing them. The outrage is indefensible from any point of view.

No Surrender After Victory.
 Commenting upon a recent statement of The Constitution that it was "disheartened to see one county after another elect third party officers on the heels of the most glorious democratic victory ever achieved in this country," The Montgomery Advertiser, a fair representative of the patronage press, says:

It is very true that these losses are the result of The Constitution's continued war on the democratic administration. But instead of its calling to Washington for a remedy, it should look home.

This is a specimen of the arguments being advanced by the democratic patronage newspapers whose honest convictions and whose party platform have withered beneath the burning blaze of federal patronage.

There is not one man in a hundred in Georgia, or any of the states surrounding it, who is not fully aware of the fact that the democratic party in this section is being weakened by the conduct of the New England element which is trying to impose the policy of the democratic administration. It is the purpose of the patronage press to explain away every democratic loss by claiming them to be due to the honesty of those democratic newspapers which insist upon the faithful recognition of the promises on which the democratic party won.

The Constitution occupies now identically the same position it did a year ago when we were appealing to the democrats of the south to remain firm and give the democratic party a chance, which it had not had since the war. They accepted the democratic platform and Georgia gave the democracy a majority of more than seven thousand. In Alabama the stupid, blundering, arrogant and asinine conduct of The Advertiser came near wrecking the party in that state and where the result is still involved in doubt. The Advertiser seems to have shaped its whole course during the past few years to the division of the party in Alabama. It has been brutal and blundering in its attacks upon the democrats who would have remained true to the party if they had been allowed to do so, and at the same time retain their self-respect in the face of the malignant viperism of The Advertiser.

The Constitution points to its record during the last campaign in Georgia with infinite pride, and while we do not claim that the splendid democratic victory was the result of our efforts, the people of this state know that the incessant work of the Daily and Weekly Constitution did much to contribute to that glorious victory.

In Alabama the last state campaign closed with the party divided badly into factions, with harsh feeling existing from the Tennessee line to the gulf, and amid the chaos and confusion of the situation arose the voice of The Advertiser, croaking like a jay-hawk, and proudly proclaiming that the doubtful majority on which it based its boasts was a tribute to the power of money and gold.

If in that election the Alabama patronage press had occupied the same position it does now on matters financial and otherwise it would not have found even so small a pittance of satisfaction on which to felicitate itself. It is now pursuing a reckless policy of repudiation of the promises of its party's own platform, and if it keeps it up it will find that the matter of a few postoffices and consulates will be but poor compensation for the harm's nest thus stirred up.

It is a reckless and wild work that is being done by the patronage press, to keep the party straight to the path of duty that The Constitution proposes to keep up the fight for honest politics. If every patronage newspaper in the south deserts the democratic platform it will only have the effect of making us work that much the more earnestly for the redemption of every pledge made. We will not accept the invitation of the patronage howlers to stop meddling with the Constitution affairs. If such papers as The Constitution and others which are laboring earnestly for the redemption of every pledge made by the party, were to bow the knee to the Baal of repudiation it would not be long before the patronage press of the south would be engaged in an effort to finally consummate their fruitless endeavor to bring about an effective combination between the patronage democrats of the south and the republican leaders of the east, whom we have been fighting for too many years to cease now.

The enthusiasm of last year's victory has not yet worn off for The Constitution; on the other hand it gives us greater encouragement to make a more persistent warfare than ever against the republican policy, which we have been fighting for twenty-five years.

We are at the old stand and propose to stay there. Let such newspapers as will surrender the guns with which they have charged the enemy since the days of reconstruction, but we propose to hold the fort now as we have for so many years, and we have enough of guns and ammunition to make it very lively for the republican enemy for at least a few years more.

Will They Reciprocate?
 The casual correspondent of The New York Herald, to whose letter we have adverted in another article, declares that the introduction of the bill repealing the federal election laws at this juncture "is Hades," and he heartily regrets that the revised edition of the scriptures has taken from the vocabulary of orthodoxy the words "Hades" and "hell."

The change is expressive word for which the editors of the south are reaping the fruit. Profanity in the fall of the year is not reassuring, and it is a pity that so simple and so just a measure as that which the democrats of the house, under the leadership of Speaker Crisp, have brought forward, should tempt the wise men of the east, whether of the lobby or of the inner chambers, to indulge in language that is hot in the mouth.

The Herald correspondent says that both the president and Mr. Carlisle have surrendered to Mr. Crisp in the matter of repealing the federal election laws, but the probability is that they have merely surrendered to their democratic convictions that the party ought to get rid of these partisan laws at the first opportunity.

It is amusing to be told that "the republicans feel that they have been trifled with and are in no mood for pleasure." We are of the opinion, however, that in this instance the followers of John Sherman and Tom Reed ought to be more accommodating. They ought to display in some small measure the spirit of reciprocity.

In the senate a large democratic minority has placed itself under the lead of John Sherman. And in both houses there has been a manifest desire on the part of some democrats to repudiate the democratic platform to the end that the financial policy of the republicans might be carried out.

Under these circumstances it would seem to be a small return for the republicans to lay aside their partisanship to enable the democrats to repeal the federal election laws. Will they reciprocate? We shall see!

Then and Now.
 It is worthy of note that the same eastern element and the same eastern newspapers that are now howling and shrieking for immediate action by the senate were bitterly opposed to The Constitution's call for an extra session in March. Some of them ridiculed the proposition, while others sagely declared that an extra session would demoralize business by prematurely tinkering with the tariff.

And yet, as was well known at the time, The Constitution's demand for an extra session in March had the hearty endorsement of a majority of business men in all parts of the country. We were in favor of an early extra session on grounds of party policy, feeling assured that the democratic policy fully and promptly carried out would improve the condition of the people and receive the hearty endorsement of the country.

The business men and manufacturers of the country were in favor of an early extra session in order that the doubt and uncertainty attending the proposed tariff changes might be definitely settled. They were and are hampered in their contracts by this doubt and uncertainty, and they desired to have the matter speedily settled.

Interests which have been rendered naturally arrogant and intolerant by long control of legislation concluded that an early extra session would not be beneficial, and so their public men and their organs placed themselves in opposition and succeeded in postponing an extra session. But if all these eastern organs now say is true, the extra session was postponed at a terrible cost to the country. If the Sherman law is responsible for all the trouble that has occurred since the 4th of March then those who opposed the extra session must share the responsibility. For the fact that the Sherman law is still on the statute books is wholly due to the arrogance with which the protected interests opposed an extra session.

The Sherman law was as bad then as it is now, but the eastern syndicate had not then begun its great work of giving the country an object lesson. "Go to!" said the eastern bankers. "We want no extra session until we have had an opportunity of showing the people what the power of money and gold is worth."

If in that election the Alabama patronage press had occupied the same position it does now on matters financial and otherwise it would not have found even so small a pittance of satisfaction on which to felicitate itself. It is now pursuing a reckless policy of repudiation of the promises of its party's own platform, and if it keeps it up it will find that the matter of a few postoffices and consulates will be but poor compensation for the harm's nest thus stirred up.

It is a reckless and wild work that is being done by the patronage press, to keep the party straight to the path of duty that The Constitution proposes to keep up the fight for honest politics. If every patronage newspaper in the south deserts the democratic platform it will only have the effect of making us work that much the more earnestly for the redemption of every pledge made. We will not accept the invitation of the patronage howlers to stop meddling with the Constitution affairs. If such papers as The Constitution and others which are laboring earnestly for the redemption of every pledge made by the party, were to bow the knee to the Baal of repudiation it would not be long before the patronage press of the south would be engaged in an effort to finally consummate their fruitless endeavor to bring about an effective combination between the patronage democrats of the south and the republican leaders of the east, whom we have been fighting for too many years to cease now.

The enthusiasm of last year's victory has not yet worn off for The Constitution; on the other hand it gives us greater encouragement to make a more persistent warfare than ever against the republican policy, which we have been fighting for twenty-five years.

We are at the old stand and propose to stay there. Let such newspapers as will surrender the guns with which they have charged the enemy since the days of reconstruction, but we propose to hold the fort now as we have for so many years, and we have enough of guns and ammunition to make it very lively for the republican enemy for at least a few years more.

Will They Reciprocate?
 The casual correspondent of The New York Herald, to whose letter we have adverted in another article, declares that the introduction of the bill repealing the federal election laws at this juncture "is Hades," and he heartily regrets that the revised edition of the scriptures has taken from the vocabulary of orthodoxy the words "Hades" and "hell."

The change is expressive word for which the editors of the south are reaping the fruit. Profanity in the fall of the year is not reassuring, and it is a pity that so simple and so just a measure as that which the democrats of the house, under the leadership of Speaker Crisp, have brought forward, should tempt the wise men of the east, whether of the lobby or of the inner chambers, to indulge in language that is hot in the mouth.

The Herald correspondent says that both the president and Mr. Carlisle have surrendered to Mr. Crisp in the matter of repealing the federal election laws, but the probability is that they have merely surrendered to their democratic convictions that the party ought to get rid of these partisan laws at the first opportunity.

It is amusing to be told that "the republicans feel that they have been trifled with and are in no mood for pleasure." We are of the opinion, however, that in this instance the followers of John Sherman and Tom Reed ought to be more accommodating. They ought to display in some small measure the spirit of reciprocity.

In the senate a large democratic minority has placed itself under the lead of John Sherman. And in both houses there has been a manifest desire on the part of some democrats to repudiate the democratic platform to the end that the financial policy of the republicans might be carried out.

Under these circumstances it would seem to be a small return for the republicans to lay aside their partisanship to enable the democrats to repeal the federal election laws. Will they reciprocate? We shall see!

No Surrender After Victory.
 Commenting upon a recent statement of The Constitution that it was "disheartened to see one county after another elect third party officers on the heels of the most glorious democratic victory ever achieved in this country," The Montgomery Advertiser, a fair representative of the patronage press, says:

It is very true that these losses are the result of The Constitution's continued war on the democratic administration. But instead of its calling to Washington for a remedy, it should look home.

This is a specimen of the arguments being advanced by the democratic patronage newspapers whose honest convictions and whose party platform have withered beneath the burning blaze of federal patronage.

There is not one man in a hundred in Georgia, or any of the states surrounding it, who is not fully aware of the fact that the democratic party in this section is being weakened by the conduct of the New England element which is trying to impose the policy of the democratic administration. It is the purpose of the patronage press to explain away every democratic loss by claiming them to be due to the honesty of those democratic newspapers which insist upon the faithful recognition of the promises on which the democratic party won.

The Constitution occupies now identically the same position it did a year ago when we were appealing to the democrats of the south to remain firm and give the democratic party a chance, which it had not had since the war. They accepted the democratic platform and Georgia gave the democracy a majority of more than seven thousand. In Alabama the stupid, blundering, arrogant and asinine conduct of The Advertiser came near wrecking the party in that state and where the result is still involved in doubt. The Advertiser seems to have shaped its whole course during the past few years to the division of the party in Alabama. It has been brutal and blundering in its attacks upon the democrats who would have remained true to the party if they had been allowed to do so, and at the same time retain their self-respect in the face of the malignant viperism of The Advertiser.

The Constitution points to its record during the last campaign in Georgia with infinite pride, and while we do not claim that the splendid democratic victory was the result of our efforts, the people of this state know that the incessant work of the Daily and Weekly Constitution did much to contribute to that glorious victory.

In Alabama the last state campaign closed with the party divided badly into factions, with harsh feeling existing from the Tennessee line to the gulf, and amid

the chaos and confusion of the situation arose the voice of The Advertiser, croaking like a jay-hawk, and proudly proclaiming that the doubtful majority on which it based its boasts was a tribute to the power of money and gold.

JUST FROM GEORGIA.

All Right in Georgia.

Country's feelin' happy from Fulton clean to Fannin;
 Cotton in the ginhouse, an' peaches saved for cannin';
 Cornbread in the oven—lots of it a-bakin';
 Big run on the tater banks, an' not one of 'em breakin'!

Country's feelin' happy—woodlands flecked in dapples;
 Children in the orchards jes' a-shakin' down the apples;
 Punkins glowin' glorious—what on earth kin beat 'em?

'Tossums on the table an' a appetite ter eat 'em!
 Country's feelin' happy; butter-milk a-churnin'!

Silver in the pocket jes' a-jugglin' an' a-burnin'!
 Don't keep much for congress—blowin' an' a-barkin'!

Georgia'll do the eatin' while they're doin' of the talkin'!

Didn't Like the Profession.

"I don't think I can be a dentist."

"Because it's too much of a hand-to-mouth business."

Pleasant Stovall is writing letters to The Savannah Press from Washington. They are up to the (single) standard.

Money is circulating right along in the rural districts. Business always gets on a rise in fall time.

Alas! and Alas!

Perhaps they'll get there just the same, but still the people wonder;

For talk has been "chill" congress came, but now it's dead as thunder!

The weekly editors who were delayed at the office by the heavy rain, were to charter freight cars for their trade editions.

Editor Cain, of The Summerville News, doesn't mind shouldering a rifle and wading waist-deep through a swamp to capture a delinquent desperado.

The Pulpit Place for Him.

"I've just knocked the devil out of the editor," said the excited subscriber.

"Brother!" cried the minister, "you ought take the pulpit; the church needs you!"

Every Georgia editor takes a hopeful view of the situation. They believe the Georgia editor generally takes all he can get.

It is now claimed that the meanest man hails from wiregrass Georgia. He is said to jump the fence every day for fear that frequent opening of the gate will wear out the hinges.

TALK OF GEORGIA TOWNS.

The Tifton Gazette has this good word for its town:

"Tifton is now clearing house certificates for its citizens. The town is full of cash in the currency of silver certificates, if you please."

Here is a financial item from The Gainesville Eagle:

"L. J. L. Gaines is going to have some of his public's exchequer, sent a carload of silver and copper, four negroes to throw it out to them. May the convention of the last year be hastened in force."

The Sylva Telephone notes this condition of affairs in that section:

"Seven county's poor are increasing in number. There are now forty-seven paupers living at the Sylva hospital, and just year there were only twenty-seven."

Of "Uncle" Herman Lester, of Henry county, who has celebrated his 123rd year, The Henry County Weekly says:

"He has been a bachelor since ninety years. Let the citizens of Henry see that Uncle Herman, in his remarkable age, is amiable and cheerful, and of which many counties would feel proud."

The Cedarwater Standard says in regard to the tax deficit in that county:

"There would have been no slump in the tax situation, had it not been for the fact that the window by the side of the tax collector's office had been broken by the wind."

The Columbus Evening Ledger takes this hopeful view of the situation:

"The 15th of September, which is regarded as the beginning of the best business season of the year, is now upon us. We may expect business to open with a rush. The people are tired of the panic; they are more ready to do business. The cotton is coming in; the crops are coming in; the people are losing sight of the panic. They are relying upon their own efforts, and doing the best they can. The Columbus Evening Ledger takes this hopeful view of the situation."

GEORGIA PRESS PERSONALS.

Griffin News: Judge Andy Calhoun, of Atlanta, is now in this city while on his way home from his Georgia county farm. The judge looked considerably tanned from his country trip and says that his crops are splendid.

Pike County Journal: Governor Northing has appointed Captain J. H. Mitchell, of this county, as a delegate from the sixth congressional district to the farmers' national congress to be held at Savannah December 12th, 13th and 14th. It is a good appointment. Captain Mitchell is well qualified to act in that capacity.

Griffin News: Hon. W. D. Tutt, well known throughout the state as "Main Bill Tutt," has located at Elberton. Colonel Tutt is one of the most popular lawyers in the state. He has been in the legislature several years and his usefulness was appreciated not only by his constituents, but by the whole state. As his wife is now in the hospital, he has been neglecting his duties as a legislator.

CONGRESS IN GEORGIA.

Corvinton Star: If money talks it ought to tell congressmen to go on with their "rat killing," and let it alone.

Albany Herald: "Time waits for no man." Congress evidently got a good lump of it before it left.

Georgetown Echo: More than all other people a congressman wants time. He wants time to be elected to speak and speak he must if the country goes to the dogs while he is at it. That's what goes with his time.

Tifton Gazette: It is now reported that President Cleveland, his cabinet and the leaders of both houses of congress, have held a "love feast" and decided it will be best to ignore the demands of the Chicago platform. That's right!

Greensboro Herald-Journal: It is our opinion that the wise men in congress who voted deliberately in opposition to the wishes of the people who sent them there and are serving their last time as public servants. They will be "statesmen out of a job" after their present terms for all time to come.

LIFE IN THE PAYS.

Gainesville Eagle: Mrs. O. P. Payne killed thirteen rattlesnakes about two feet long with a full grown button cane, near her house on Wednesday. Her only weapon was a cane.

Alpharetta Free Press: There is one family in Cherokee county that eats two bushels of corn meal every week regularly. They are all strong and healthy, too, and a goodly large family of them.

Jonesboro Enterprise: Watermelon season is now about over and the display will turn its attention to "possum and tater." If they don't continue to live high it will be because that long-eared hound has lost his cunning.

Toccoa News: There is a newly organized brass band in town, the members of which are of the colored persuasion. Their teacher is a white man who claims to be from Fernandina, Fla., and to be fleeing from yellow fever. The nights are made hideous by the practice of the band.

Georgetown Echo: Some kind of sea fowl that perhaps was blown from the coast broke up a negro baseball game here last Saturday by flying over the ball ground. Some said the Lord sent it and a good batch of them went off and joined the church that night.

Is This Exactly Fair?

Editor Constitution—I observe of late a most unaccountable manifestation from certain quarters to belittle the honorable services and the splendid party record of gallant young democrats, who went to the front in last year's fight and gave three months of their time to the laudable purpose of maintaining Georgia's democratic record.

How is it that from certain sources not a day is allowed to pass but that gibes and taunts directed against Hon. Steve Clay and Hon. W. Y. Atkinson are conspicuously prominent in print?

Is it because these two distinguished young democrats have been prominently mentioned in connection with the governorship? Is it an honorable and upright way to attack them? Should not their splendid service to their party commend itself to our respect, and elicit the response to which it is justly entitled? Even if they deserve no more credit than any other good democrat who spent his time in active work in last year's contest, should they be subjected to gibes and taunts, just because their names have been mentioned in connection with the honorable position of governor? Neither has as yet announced, but if either or both of them enter the race, they should and will receive the respect and consideration warranted by their active service for the party.

Last year, when the democratic party was in trouble, Steve Clay took the stump and worked like a war horse wherever he was most needed—not only in Cherokee county, where he did his best work, but in every section of the state where the campaign committee asked him to go. He never wavered in his duty, and for three months his time belonged to his party.

The work of Chairman Atkinson is well known to all. He fought from first to last with all the energy that was in him and did good enough work to at least guarantee him immunity from insidious and malicious "digs."

As to the governorship, I have no personal interest in it for any one man over another. I think, however, that the name of the governor next chosen should be taken from the ranks of the active workers of the party—from those who bared their breasts to the storm last year; from those who met the new party face to face, and showed the people the strength and worth of the party.

But whoever is to be chosen, let me urge now, for the sake of the honor of the party, that there be no more flings and innuendoes against the men who went to the front in last year's fight, and who are now working for the party with as much energy and activity as they could.

There may be a purpose in the apparently studied effort to minimize the record and the work of Clay and Atkinson as earnest democratic workers. But it will become transparent to the people. It is to be earnestly hoped that it is not the part of any programme of outside interference with state affairs.

Griffin, Ga., September 19, 1893.

SOME GEORGIA STORIES.

The Toccoa News says that "the colonel" recently told a ghost story to a crowd of interested listeners. He said:

"I was going by railroad from Goldsboro to Wilmington, N. C. It was on a beautiful moonlight night, and I was in the car. I was looking out the window by the side of the train, and I saw a white light coming out of the woods. It followed right along by the side of the train, and I called the attention of the other passengers to it. It followed us for some time, and I saw it just as plainly as I did. So it could not have been a hallucination."

"The specter kept pace with the train, and, wonderful to relate, would sometimes run a little ahead, cross the track in front of the engine, and run along the other side. Then it would disappear altogether for a while, but to return again after a few minutes."

TWENTY YEARS THE LEADER!!!

York. was in Atlanta purs in the ing prohibition.
will stop in traffic in and finally Mississippi.
on to alcoholically.
ed, and One was ten
One was looking for you all day," the baker said.

saw in this morning's Constitution that was going around for contributions this morning and I thought my wagon with bread and have been driving all over hunting you. With his coat off, Cap baker took the big hoghead and bread in the baker's wagon on his shoulder and transferred it to his big wagon.

Matched the Dollar.

He passed Mr. Albert Howell on the street and held it up to a dollar suggestively.
"I can match it," said Mr. Howell, and he did.

The big wagon was driving down Alabama street, past the Merchants' bank, when Porter Woodson, from behind the teller's counter called to the driver to stop. "Hurry's from Sam Wall and myself," said he, coming out of the bank to deliver the contribution.

Manager Steiner, of the Atlanta City Brewing Company, caught sight of the wagon in front of Oglesby & Meadors. He called to Howlett to come to him. "Let them have $25 worth of groceries and beer," he said to me," said Mr. Steiner, and the drivers were loaded and the wagon was gone.

A negro barber ran out, and stopped the

The Atlanta Traction Company has been raised a good deal for the enterprise of its scheme to render help to the Brunswick sufferers.

The Traction Company proposes to run a number of extra cars Friday and to make a day of entertainment at all of its suburban points for the purpose of raising the fund. They may go out to the places for a change of enjoyment, at the same time contributing to the fund that is being raised for the sufferers from yellow fever at Brunswick.

The company will give half of the receipts of the day to the fund, and will give the other half to the soldiers who desire to go to the suburbs that day for amusement. They have arranged to run extra cars to the barracks where the soldiers are stationed, and the soldiers and the Third Artillery band will take place at 2 o'clock instead of 5 o'clock, as heretofore. This will give the soldiers a bright night and enjoying the parades of the soldiers, and enjoying the music of the band at the art.

Extra cars will be run to East Lake Professor Blondell, the great swimmer of America, will give a performance in the water for the entertainment of the soldiers and the amusement of the people.

The Traction Company will run extra cars to the performance of Mr. Sorcho, at Grant park, also, and will run extra cars to the crowd of pleasure seekers, no matter.

The line to Decatur will run extra cars that place the program of the day. The cars will be arranged for the crowds who may wish to take the six-mile ride.

Wendmeister will have one of those delightful and palatable barbecues of his today, and the service will begin at 4:30 o'clock. It is known the world over that Wilkes county presents the most delectable barbecued meats in the world, and to those who have partaken of the Wilkes barbecues there is always a want of something when they hit other "cues," but it seems that "Mine Host Carl" has found

Cream

The only Pure Cream of Tartar Powder
Used in Millions of Homes

der.—No Ammonia; No Alum.
—40 Years the Standard

NO BRANCH HO

USE IN THE CITY.

Diamonds,
Watches,
Solid Silver,
Bridal Presents,
Engraving Wedding Invitations.
J. P. STEVENS & Bro.,
47 Whitehall street.

get in the "push,"

by going to first-class concerns—for first-class goods—we cater to the best trade—no cheap adulterated trash—no cheap business—wines, gins, brandies, cordials, etc., from every foreign mart—imported by us—the whiskies.

bluthenthal & bickart.

"b. & b."

Marjetta and forsyth—at new bridge.
"Canadian club."
"Schultz beer—genuine."
"Four aces whisky."

We are the only manufacturers in Georgia making a specialty of Wood Mantels.

We manufacture the Mantels we offer for sale.

We employ (now) thirty men.
We might employ 75 if — patronize home industries.

MAY MANTEL CO.,

115, 117, 119 West Mitchell St.,

Atlanta, Ga.

OPIUM and Whiskey Habits cured at home without pain. Book of particulars sent FREE.
R. M. WOOLLEY, M.D.,
Atlanta, Ga. Office 105 1/2 Whitehall St.

20 Years of marvelous success in the treatment of MEN and WOMEN.

Dr. W. W. Bowes
ATLANTA, GA.,
SPECIALIST IN

Chronic, Nervous, Blood and Skin Diseases.

VARIICOLE and Hydrocele permanently cured in every case.
Nervous debility, seminal losses, dependency, etc., of bad habits.
STERILITY, IMPOTENCE.—Those desiring to marry, but are physically incapacitated, get quick relief.
Blood and skin diseases, Syphilis and its effects, Ulcers and Sores.
Urinary, Kidney and Bladder trouble.
Enlarged Prostate.
Urethral Stricture permanently cured without cutting or caustics, at home, with no interference of business.
Send 6c. in stamps for book and question list.
Book of business references furnished. Address
Dr. W. W. Bowes, 21 Marietta St. Atlanta, Ga.

For the Cash.

We are now offering all styles vehicles at lower prices than ever before.

SEE HERE!

Road Cars $10.50 and upward.

One-Horse Wagon $27.50 and upward.

Buggies $37.50 and upward.

HARNESS OUR SPECIALTY.

"FIRST COME, FIRST SERVED."

Standard Wagon Co.,

"AROUND THE POSTOFFICE."

E. D. CRANE, Manager.

EXTRACT OF BEEF
As a medical comfort and stimulant. The Medical Profession recommend highly the use of Liebig COMPANY'S Extract

is all cases of weakness and digestive disorder. Try a cup when exhausted and see how refreshing it is.
This is a facsimile of the signature of Justin Liebig
on the jar.
BE SURE AND GET THE GENUINE.

JAMES E. HICKEY,
DEALER IN

Fine Vehicles and Harness

Horse and Dray Covers,

No. 27 WEST ALABAMA STREET.

Full line of Horse Blankets and Fur and Plush Robes.

Telephone 122.
August 1st to 1st of Sep.

WILL THE SHOPS GO?

It Is Rumored That the General Electric Repair Shop Will Be Moved.

MANAGER PALMER WONT TALK

And the Employees of the Company Appear to Know Nothing Except That a Change Is Impending.

A mysterious silence is being maintained by the local officials of the General Electric Company with reference to the recent order sent out from the company's New York office abolishing its southern headquarters.

Although the date on which this order is said to take effect is just a few days off, no intimation has been given by the local attaches of any change. They have been steadily silent upon the subject, and now it is said that not only are the headquarters to go, but that there is a likelihood that the repair shops will be abandoned here.

Mr. H. E. W. Palmer, the southern manager of the General Electric Company, who was absent when the report was first made that the order abolishing the department here had been received, returned only to leave for Chicago, where he will be for two weeks.
He was seen for a few minutes by a representative of The Constitution, but said he would say absolutely nothing about the change that was rumored.

No tacit admission that a change is to be made in the local affairs of the company has yet been obtained, but yesterday Mr.
Jama Bullen said that a change was to be made, but that he could not say anything about it.

He was asked about the rumor that the shops are to be removed and he stated that he did not know whether the shops would be abandoned or not. He could give no further information on that point.

It is thought very probable that the shops will go, and that the change will not be so complete as at first reported in the office in the Equitable building. They say that the force will be retained. None of the many employees of the company in Atlanta seem to know what is to befall. They say they cannot tell whether the shops will be abandoned or not, and do not know what day they will find themselves out of work.

The strictest silence has been kept on these points by those in position to know, and Mr.
Palmer, the only official authorized to talk, refused to say a word when questioned.
It is hoped that the shops will be retained. It gives employment to a large force of men. It is located in a new building on Marietta street and does the repair work for the entire south. There is no repair shop nearer than Chicago.

It is also thought possible that all the talk about the removal of the shops may be unauthorized and unfounded. The repair work is going on as if nothing had happened, as is also the work in the office.

Mr. Palmer will be absent two weeks, returning to Atlanta about the 1st, which is the date set for closing of the headquarters here. Until then the matter will be open for speculation.

Do not let that tired feeling hang onto you till the heat of midsummer, but get rid of it once, by taking Dr. W. W. Bowes' pills, which will give you strength and vigor. Sold by druggists.

THAT WEST END ELECTION.

The Vote on Annexation Will Occur in West End on Tomorrow.

The citizens of West End will be given a chance to express their views on the proposed annexation of West End by Atlanta. The basis of annexation has been printed time and again, and every one taking an interest in the matter thoroughly understands the relations that are proposed between the two.

If West End rejects the proposition made for an annexation, the majority of the white citizens in West End are in favor of annexation. All of them realize that West End should have fire protection, and along with it plenty of water and a good sewerage system.

The managers of the poll will be Judge Robert L. Rogers and an annexationist and an anti-annexationist. The polls will be open from 7 o'clock in the morning until 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

Will be found an excellent remedy for sick headache, Carter's Little Liver Pills. Thousands of letters from people who have used them prove this fact. Try them.

MILLINERY OPENING.

Of Max Kutz & Co.—They Show Fine
Goods Tomorrow.

The fall millinery opening of Messrs.
Max Kutz & Co. occurs tomorrow and promises to be one of the grandest this city has ever seen. The goods are all new and reliable company has ever given.
Mr. Kutz is always in the lead in his line, both in serving the public and in carrying a line of goods suitable to the tastes of his customers. It is said that never before in the history of Atlanta has such an array of imported pattern hats and fine French millinery been on exhibition as will be at his store Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Everything is to be in readiness, and the ladies who desire to know what is the latest styles in head wear for the fall and winter can have their desires gratified by calling and inspecting the goods of this old and reliable firm. Remember the opening continues through Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Low Rates.

There is no trip to be compared with that to New York via Norfolk and the Old Dominion steamers. The Seaboard Air-Line has been fighting for a long time for reduced rates to New York and return and also to Richmond and Washington and return, and have at last put the following tickets on sale:

New York and return $28.55
Washington and return 30.75
Richmond and Norfolk and return . . . 27.75
Tickets to Richmond, Norfolk and Washington to be on sale every Thursday during September, and to New York every Monday during September.

Through sleeper, fastest schedule to Washington without change. Seventeen hours to Norfolk.
For information call on C. B. Walker, ticket agent, Union depot; E. M. Fleming, C. W. Taylor, No. 6 Kimball house.
H. W. B. GLOVER,
Traffic Manager, sun to eve

Bowden Lithia Water from Lithia Springs, Ga., cures all bladder and kidney troubles, rheumatism, neuritis and gout. Endorsed by hundreds of physicians. Free city delivery. Shipped everywhere. Ask for prices and pamphlet. 174 Peachtree. Telephone 1083.

FOR WASHINGTON AND RICHMOND.

Excursion Tickets to the Richmond and Danville.

The Richmond and Danville railroad will sell round trip tickets to Washington and Richmond on Thursday next, as follows:
Atlanta to Washington and return . . . $24.75
Atlanta to Richmond and return . . . 27.75
These tickets will be good returning within fifteen days from date of sale and are good on both the vestibule limited and the fast mail. For particulars apply No. 10
Kimball house. mon-tu-wed

PERSONAL

C. J. Daniel, wall paper, window shades and furniture, 40 Marietta street. Phone 77.
33-1-3 Per Cent Off.

I will give the above discount on all cash orders the next 30 days, which includes the price of my finest cabinet photos from $9 to $4 per dozen. All picture frames at and below cost. C. W. MOTER, 40-50-30-40.

Notice.
To whom it may concern: I will not be responsible for any debt or debts my son Harry may contract from date, D. E.
Klug.

HE LOVED

good bread, pie, and pastry, but his stomach was delicate.

SHE LOVED

to cook, but was tired and sick of the taste and smell of lard.

She bought Cottolene, (the new shortening) and

THEY LOVED

more than ever, because she made better food, and he could eat it without any unpleasant after effect. Now

THEY ARE HAPPY in

having found the BEST, and most healthful shortening ever made—

COTTOLENE.

Made only by

N. K. FAIRBANK & CO.,

CHICAGO AND ST. LOUIS.

RECEIVER'S SALE

—OF—

Stock of Carriage and Wagon Hardware, etc.

By order of court, sealed bids are invited on the entire stock of carriage and wagon hardware material and merchandise, paints, leather, whips, saddles, etc., furniture and furnishings, Carriage Hardware Co. now contained in the storehouse at Nos. 36 and 38 West Alabama St., Atlanta, Ga. Also on four years lease on said premises, bids to be on above entire property, or on stock of hardware, etc., or on part thereof, or on property, or on said lease, or on furniture and furnishings, bids on carriage, fixtures and lease must be for cash; on said entire property or on stock alone for least one-third cash, balance within six months, well secured. All bids to be in writing, sealed and delivered to receiver on or before September 15, 1893. The right is reserved to reject any and all bids or to accept of any one or more and reject the remainder.
For further particulars apply to underseal-ed, who will exhibit inventory and property to intending bidders.

S. LEAK, Receiver.

35-41 N. Pryor st. Atlanta, Ga.

aug19 11 wtd

Supreme Court of Georgia.

CLERK'S OFFICE, Atlanta, Ga., September

12, 1893.—It appears from the docket of the Supreme Court for the October Term, 1893, that the order of circuits, with the number of cases from each county and from the city courts, is as follows:

ATLANTA CIRCUIT.

Fulton, 2; City Court of Atlanta, 34. . . 58

STONE MOUNTAIN CIRCUIT.

DeKalb, 6; Newton, 1; Rockdale, 2. . . . 8

MIDDLE CIRCUIT.

Emmanuel, 1; Jefferson, 1; Johnson, 1;
Screven, 1; Tattnall, 1; Washington, 2. . . 7

ATLANTA CIRCUIT.

Burke, 5; Columbia, 2; McDuffie, 1; Richmond, 10; City Court of Richmond County, 7. 25

EASTERN CIRCUIT.

Chatham, 5; City Court of Savannah, 8. . . 13

MACON CIRCUIT.

Bibb, 2; Crawford, 2; Houston, 3; City
Court of Macon, 5. 33

NORTHERN CIRCUIT.

Elbert, 1; Hancock, 5; Madison, 2; Tallato, 1; Warren, 3; Wilkes, 3. 15

WILKES CIRCUIT.

Oconee, 1; City Court of Clarke County, 1. . 2

NORTHEASTERN CIRCUIT.

Habersham, 3; Hall, 5; City Court of Hall County, 1. 9

BLUE RIDGE CIRCUIT.

Cobb, 7; City Court of Milton, 1. . . . 10

CHESTER CIRCUIT.

Barrow, 3; Calhoun, 3; Dale, 3; Gordon, 3;
Wilkes, 6; City Court of Greenville, 1. . 19

BOMB CIRCUIT.

Chattooga, 1; Floyd, 22; Walker, 4; City
Court of Floyd County, 2. 30

TALLAPOOSA CIRCUIT.

Pandolf, 2; Polk, 1; Harrison, 7. . . . 12

COVET CIRCUIT.

Campbell, 1; Carroll, 2; Coweta, 2; Fayette, 2; City Court of Coweta County, 1. . 8

FLINT CIRCUIT.

Bris, 2; Henry, 6; Pike, 2; Spalding, 2; Toson, 2; City Court of Monroe County, 2. 17

OKMULGEE CIRCUIT.

Baldwin, 1; Groves, 1; Jones, 1; Morgan, 4;
Putnam, 2; Wilkinson, 1. 10

CHATTAHOOCHEE CIRCUIT.

Chattahoochee, 2; Harney, 1; Marion, 4; Muscle, 2; Talbot, 10; City Court of Columbus, 2. 24

CLAY CIRCUIT.

Clay, 2; Early, 2; Terrell, 2. 6

SOUTHWESTERN CIRCUIT.

Lee, 2; Macon, 1; Sumter, 7. 10

CAHOUN CIRCUIT.

Calhoun, 1; Decatur, 5; Dougherty, 4;
Mitchell, 1. 11

SOUTHERN CIRCUIT.

Lowndes, 1. 1

OCONEE CIRCUIT.

Dodge, 10; Irwin, 2; Montgomery, 2; Pulaski, 7; Telfair, 3; Twiggs, 2; Wilcox, 3. . 29

BLISSWICK CIRCUIT.

Appling, 3; Clinch, 1; Glynn, 10; Pierce, 1;
Ware, 1. 22

Total. 379

Under Rule 45 of the Supreme Court, the following cases will be heard in the order shown, in advance of all other business, to-wit:

(1) Northern, Busher v. State;
(2) 4 Coweta, Hood v. State;
(3) 12 Chattahoochee, Riley v. State;
(4) 10 Cherokee, Adams v. State;
(5) 3 Flint, Hart v. State;
(6) 8 Oconee, Butler v. State;
(7) 4 Flint, Vannoy v. State;
(8) 5 Flint, Keith v. State;
(9) 5 Tallapoosa, Camp v. State;
(10) 4 Atlanta, Tolbert v. State;
(11) 5 Coweta, Gearty v. State;
(12) 6 Coweta, Jenkins v. State;
(13) 10 Flint, Schatz v. State;
(14) 11 Flint, Stanger v. State;
(15) 21 Atlanta, Jackson v. State;
(16) 21 Atlanta, Jackson v. State;
(17) 7 Coweta, Hines v. State;
(18) 21 Oconee, Jackson v. State;
(19) 25 Oconee, Howell v. State;
(20) 25 Atlanta, Fletcher v. State;
(21) 14 Macon, Dean v. State;
(22) 15 Macon, Dean v. State;
(23) 15 Macon, Dean v. State;
(24) 16 Macon, Dean v. State;
(25) 17 Macon, Dean v. State;
(26) 4 Macon, Dean v. State;
(27) 12 Eastern, McGarr v. State.

S. D. HARRISON,
Clerk Supreme Court.

sept13 21 wtd

COOK'S COTTONROOT
COMPOUND.

A recent discovery by an old physician. Successfully used months by thousands of Ladies, is the only perfectly safe and reliable medicine discovered. Beware of unprincipled druggists who offer inferior medicines in place of this.
Ask for Cook's Cotton Root Compound, or boxes $1 and 50c. Taken inside of bottle.
sealed, by return mail. Full sealed particulars in plain envelope, to ladies only, 2 stamps. Address POND LILY COMPANY, No. 3 Fisher Block, Decatur, Ga. Sold in Atlanta by the ELKIN
WATSON DRUG CO. 107-109-111-113-115-117-119-121-123-125-127-129-131-133-135-137-139-141-143-145-147-149-151-153-155-157-159-161-163-165-167-169-171-173-175-177-179-181-183-185-187-189-191-193-195-197-199-201-203-205-207-209-211-213-215-217-219-221-223-225-227-229-231-233-235-237-239-241-243-245-247-249-251-253-255-257-259-261-263-265-267-269-271-273-275-277-279-281-283-285-287-289-291-293-295-297-299-301-303-305-307-309-311-313-315-317-319-321-323-325-327-329-331-333-335-337-339-341-343-345-347-349-351-353-355-357-359-361-363-365-367-369-371-373-375-377-379-381-383-385-387-389-391-393-395-397-399-401-403-405-407-409-411-413-415-417-419-421-423-425-427-429-431-433-435-437-439-441-443-445-447-449-451-453-455-457-459-461-463-465-467-469-471-473-475-477-479-481-483-485-487-489-491-493-495-497-499-501-503-505-507-509-511-513-515-517-519-521-523-525-527-529-531-533-535-537-539-541-543-545-547-549-551-553-555-557-559-561-563-565-567-569-571-573-575-577-579-581-583-585-587-589-591-593-595-597-599-601-603-605-607-609-611-613-615-617-619-621-623-625-627-629-631-633-635-637-639-641-643-645-647-649-651-653-655-657-659-661-663-665-667-669-671-673-675-677-679-681-683-685-687-689-691-693-695-697-699-701-703-705-707-709-711-713-715-717-719-721-723-725-727-729-731-733-735-737-739-741-743-745-747-749-751-753-755-757-759-761-763-765-767-769-771-773-775-777-779-781-783-785-787-789-791-793-795-797-799-801-803-805-807-809-811-813-815-817-819-821-823-825-827-829-831-833-835-837-839-841-843-845-847-849-851-853-855-857-859-861-863-865-867-869-871-873-875-877-879-881-883-885-887-889-891-893-895-897-899-901-903-905-907-909-911-913-915-917-919-921-923-925-927-929-931-933-935-937-939-941-943-945-947-949-951-953-955-957-959-961-963-965-967-969-971-973-975-977-979-981-983-985-987-989-991-993-995-997-999-1001-1003-1005-1007-1009-1011-1013-1015-1017-1019-1021-1023-1025-1027-1029-1031-1033-1035-1037-1039-1041-1043-1045-1047-1049-1051-1053-1055-1057-1059-1061-1063-1065-1067-1069-1071-10